El Paso Young Man Adds Vitalitas Statement To Many Others.

"I took a chance," states Mr. L. L. Kenyon, an El Paso young man of 410 Octavia Street.

"When I purchased my first bottle of Vitzlitas I thought It was one of those widely advertised medicines and did not expect any unusual results. Indigestion was my nilment. I took it as directed and I am absolutely cured of that trouble. Rellef and action of this medicine was quick and pleasant. Nature has certainly blended a fine medicine in Vitalitas. I am well pleased with the results as it acted quicker and more positive than I ex-
